“Called to Serve...”

This Sunday we will have the privilege of installing and ordaining fifteen new deacons: Nora Abat, Jessica Best, Florence Davis, Dr. Leon DeMent, Max Futch, Dr. James Gilley, Dr. George Haile, Alan Jordan, David Mullen, Pam Morgan, Nona Spence, Harold Stegall, Bud Tweedy, Julie Tweedy, and Paul White. This service will be an affirmation of their call and recognition of their willingness to serve the members of Broadmoor Baptist Church and in the work of the Kingdom. I know they would appreciate your presence and support as they accept and honor this call to ministry.

Over the next few weeks, each of these men and women will have an opportunity to share more about their calling and their journey of faith in this newsletter. Please take time to read about them and to get to know them. Many of them will be serving the church for the first time in this capacity. However, all of them have been a part of the ministries of Broadmoor for quite some time. They have been teachers, ministers, quilters, servers, choir members, leaders, trustees, committee members, and the list goes on.

A deacon is called to share in Christ’s ministry of servanthood by leading others into Christian discipleship, nurturing disciples for witness and service, leading in worship, assisting in

Holy Communion, interpreting to the church the world’s hurts and hopes, serving all people, particularly the poor, the sick, and the oppressed, and leading Christ’s people in ministries of compassion and justice, liberation and reconciliation, even in the face of hardship and personal sacrifice. These are the duties of a deacon.

Your church staff looks forward to serving alongside our deacons, year after year. It is a joy to be surrounded and supported by people such as these in their areas of ministry. We would like to say thanks to these women and men for answering God’s call to be willing and faithful servants.

To those of you who are deacons...Go forth now as God’s servant. Remember God’s presence often and draw strength from the knowledge that the One who calls and sends also sustains. Amen.

Blessings,

Bobby

Day of Caring Report

Our first Day of Caring was attended by 40 people, represented by children through senior adults. 12 home visits were made, and dozens of cards and calls were made to connect with and encourage our members who are currently unable to come to church. Many thanks to Frank Rugeley and Alan Rutherford for the delicious breakfast. Won’t you join us for our next Day of Caring, Saturday, April 30?
