“When You Worry...”

We live in an anxious age. People are full of concerns for personal health, the health of a loved one, the world situation, and other matters. We know worry is a problem but what do we do with it? The Bible has much to say about worry and its effects on the body and soul. It also contains very practical help in neutralizing the debilitating effects of worry.

Here is a four point prescription for worry.

First, read and memorize scripture. Some pertinent “worry verses” are Jeremiah 29:11; 1 Peter 5:7; Philippians 4:6, 13, 19; Matthew 6:25, 34; John 14:27, 16:33. There are many others. Keep a list in your Bible, and let God speak to you through His Word.

Second, take time to review your entire life, not just the part you’re worried about. We tend to focus almost exclusively on whatever worries us and ignore others areas that should be of great comfort. If you need any proof of this notice next time what happens when whatever you worried about is resolved. What happens next? Another worry percolates to the top! Perhaps if we stop looking only at what worries us we will see other ways God is at work. And remember, circumstances can alter our plans, but they never alter God’s purpose.

Third, laugh. Laughter really is wonderful medicine, and it’s not anti-Christian! Ezra and Nehemiah counseled the people to be joyous by reminding them that “the joy of the Lord is your strength.” Joy is laughter of the soul. Find a way to give expression to that which God put in your soul.

Fourth, praise is always appropriate. We make a mistake of assuming that we can only praise God when we are really happy with the way everything is going. But in the Bible we find the Psalmist praising God from the depths (read Psalm 22) and Paul praising God from prison. Praise is always appropriate. God is unchanging.

Next time you are worried try these suggestions. Let me know how you do with them so I can pass along the encouragement to others.

Grace,

Tony Ellis

Continue your support of this ministry in our community. Bring food items to the collection barrels at all church entrances.

Keep Watching!

Our church is working to beautify the area across the street in front of Broadmoor Elementary. After months of planning, soon you will see landscaping instead of a muddy side street as part of our outreach to the community.

Fall Rent-A-Youth November 3-16

After a great success with our summer Rent-A-Youth, we decided fall is also a time that you may need an extra hand around the yard or house. A list of youth available to work is in the church office. All donations will go towards youth camp for next summer. Check with Dave for more details.
