

"I Am Grateful"

I want to share with you some of my recent experiences at BBC that have left me feeling especially grateful. For those who made our Trunk or Treat a success: Children's Ministry Team, photographer, hot dog/food servers, Newcomers Ministry Team with their roving hospitality, and the many decorated trunks welcoming costumed children and their parents, for candy and popcorn and slide and music, for security and good weather, for our church members and volunteers, and for Dave Oakley, its coordinator. Thank you all for sharing with our own and with our neighborhood! This event is an excellent opportunity to reach out and get to know folks from our Broadmoor Preschool, local community, and family and friends of our church.

I am also grateful for the outstanding, inspiring gift of our music ministry, musicians from organ and brass, to timpani and bells, talented and capable choir, to a music minister committed to excellence. Thank you to all who led us in praise of God through worship last Sunday as we celebrated the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation. Comments praising the music from that service arose, and continue to arise, repeatedly from membership and guests, all. We are lucky and blessed to have such commitment to excellence in our church!

Furthermore, I am grateful to those who are open to hearing a call from God and who step out on faith to lead. As we begin the GriefShare program for our Missing Piece grief ministry, I am incredibly glad for Karen Elkins, who has volunteered to be the chief facilitator of this program, a series she herself is going through, and a ministry bound to be a blessing to many of our folks and guests. Grief is real and terribly difficult, especially when faced alone. We offer community when you most need it, as well as helpful tools for coping with and growing from loss. In the spirit of ministry in the brokenness, keep in mind that our Divorce Care ministry begins this Sunday afternoon and evening. You may find out more through our newsletter, bulletin, or Wednesday announcements. Or you may simply call the church office.

And finally, I am grateful for the gift of this loving congregation and our wonderful staff. It is pure joy to work in such a positive, happy place; to serve alongside qualified staff that deeply loves BBC.

In each of these instances above, I see people who take "stewardship" seriously, giving their talents and time for the benefit of ministry and serving Christ. Because of the generosity of those who financially support God's work, we are able to provide such rich and rewarding ministries. It is easy to take these for granted, assuming we will always have them or feeling as though we deserve them; however, it is because of the love and care of those who give that many enjoy all these ministries.
