

“Merci Beaucoup and Bienvenue!”

Where to begin? Perhaps with a saying by poet Maya Angelou: “When we give cheerfully and accept gratefully, everyone is blessed.” On behalf of the youth members and leaders of Broadmoor Baptist Church, I want to thank those of you who became the audience for our Uncle Phil’s Diner dinner theater last weekend; and to those who, although unable to attend, made contributions to their great effort and cause. And so, we are indeed blessed to have the the adult leaders who put in a great deal of time directing, building, cooking, playing, painting, and shopping for the theater. Especially to Paul Henderson who worked faithfully and indefatigably with BBC youth on Sunday nights for months. Moreover, each of you has indirectly made spiritual contributions in these young lives. As Alfred Painter once said, “Saying thank you is more than good manners, it is good spirituality.”

With this newsletter we begin a series of articles that introduce our newest deacons through brief biographical sketches. I ask that you keep them in your prayers as they serve BBC. Our first article acquaints us better with Angie Miller.

Grateful,
Pastor Leonard

Deacon Bio

My name is Angie Miller. Many of you may know me from my role as part-time administrative assistant in the church office. I have been married to Kirk for 38 years. We have two grown daughters and a brand new precious grandson. I am excited and honored to serve as a deacon here at BBC.

I was born and raised Catholic, but my experience with my faith was never personal until I became a member of BBC in 1986, and was baptized by Dr. John Goodwin a short time later. What I have come to love most about the Baptist faith is the “Priesthood of the Believer”—each of us on equal footing before God; no intermediary necessary. What I love most about this particular Baptist Church is it’s people. I find we are a diverse group of thinkers, but we allow each other the right to differ in our opinions, graciously. Kirk and I are long-time members of a Sunday School class that often gets into spirited conversations on a myriad of subjects. While we may often disagree with one another about a particular subject, we still walk out of that room as friends, respectful of one another and our opinions. I love that. And I love this church, and hope to serve it well.
