“ The Journey of Caring”

An excerpt from our church’s history

“The people of Broadmoor Baptist Church established it in 1957 as a church with certain hallmarks, including theological freedom, an openness to new ideas, strong lay leadership, respect for every person’s opinion, and a mutual caring. Through the years Broadmoor has also emphasized the calling of ALL God’s people, both men and women, to leadership and service.”

“After over 50 years, Broadmoor has established itself as a healthy and mature church that knows what it is, and is joyful in that identity. The members enjoy their freedom and equality. They trust each other, respect each other, and care for each other. They keep worship and missions at the heart of what they do.”

How firm is our foundation? Are we able to withstand the storms of life? Is our HOPE built on the firm, deep, strong, immovable Solid Rock of Christ? Now more than any other time in recent memory, we may have to survey, plan, calculate, dig deep to find how firm our faith, identity, mission, and calling may be.

In the same book on the history of Broadmoor is a quote by a former pastor, Glen Edwards...“For some of you latecomers it may seem... that Broadmoor was born full grown. Not so! ... Good days, better days, best days are in our brief history. Bad days, worse days, worst days are there too. But history, any history, is made of such.”

The foundation of this church and its people is not more important than ever before, but it is as equally important as it was in the beginning. Not only must we continue in the hallmarks of our church and faith, but we must build on them as well. I firmly believe this church was ordained by God to accomplish His mission, and I am pretty sure that God’s mission is still ahead of us each and every day. He has created it for us, and He has created us for it.

See you Sunday,
Bobby
