

"New Creation!"

"In the beginning . . ."

Where have you heard that? Just as in Genesis 1, when God began creating it was for our good. John tells us God is creating once again! And it is good. Over the next seven weeks, as our Lenten devotion writers reflect on their own beginning and their journey following Jesus, notice the intersections of old life and new life. Keep in mind that when God creates, it intersects with real life. That's the point of incarnation - God taking on flesh, finding sacred in the mundane. And so, when God creates, it is always good. "In the beginning," God has goodness and our well-being in mind. Yet, even when working goodness for us, the aftermath of anything new is that it also disturbs the chaos and darkness, the status quo and selfishness, or simply sin. What is the chaos in your life; and what lurks in the darkness of your heart? Pay attention to the resistance in your heart and the disruption in your routines. This journey should make us aware of the very reason God needed to create again, to create with Christ.

Journeying,
Pastor Leonard

Deacon Bio

My name is Alyssa Henderson, and I am a senior at LSU studying marketing. Many of you know me as Paul and Kim Henderson's daughter. I came to Broadmoor Baptist Church when I was 4 years old, because my dad got a new job as the Minister of Music. This church is like a second home to me, and many of you are like my family. I am so grateful to have grown up in this church, and to have met many of my best friends here as well. I decided to become a deacon because I wanted to be a voice for the young members of our church. I look forward to serving in this new role and I hope to continue to make our church a loving and welcoming place for all people.
