

“See A Need. Do Something About It.”

Broadmoor Baptist recently received The Golden Apple Award for our support of Broadmoor Elementary!

In the last year some of our members have served as Reading Buddies and Math Buddies to help the students learn. We have built benches, and cleaned up the courtyard. We served a meal for ESL families and provided a gift card for teacher appreciation.

The uniform drive supplied quality uniforms at nominal costs for the families. The landscaping transformed the frontage on Goodwood from a muddy parking mess to a very attractive feature of the school.

These ministries are a pure expression of our love for God and our neighbor. Broadmoor Elementary is our neighbor. We saw needs among the students, families, and even the grounds, and we moved to meet those needs.

See a need. Do something about it. That simple mission is at the heart of our faith. We don't do these things in order to get more members or to increase our attendance. We do them simply because we saw a need and we had the capacity to help.

Now what do we do from this point? We continue to look and listen. As a church we want to know how and where we can help. Each member should be looking and listening. God will lead us. He will reveal to us other ways in which we can lift burdens, give encouragement, and share the Good News.

This same principle works in your life. Each morning pray that God will bring someone into your life to help. Then watch and listen. The task God brings you might be quite simple, and you are likely to diminish the value of your service. Don't do that! We are each links in a gracious chain that brings people to God. Just take care of what is near you.

Broadmoor Elementary is near us. Larry Harris, the principal, and all the teachers and support staff are engaged daily in a monumental task of teaching little children. Their task is a ministry. Their willingness is a calling. We are proud to help any way we can.

Grace,
Terry Ellis
