

“Back to Broadmoor”

So where have you been this summer? Leslie and I enjoyed a vacation in the Grand Tetons, Yellowstone, and Salt Lake City. We had a wonderful time! I trust that wherever you went you were able to relax, enjoy family and friends, and take in some of the beauty of God’s world. I hope you have had a great summer.

Now we get back to regular life. We want to extend a special invitation to come “Back to Broadmoor!” As you reestablish the normal rhythms of life make sure that attending church is a priority. Make it a weekly habit.

I hope speaking of church as a habit doesn’t surprise you. Some habits are very good, and church attendance is one of those. I’ve read many studies that point out the benefits of church attendance. Contrary to common prejudices church going people are more giving, more thoughtful, and more satisfied in life. Going to church is good for you!

More importantly, going to church is an expression of your devotion to God. He created us with a spiritual rhythm. One day a week is to be different from the others.

The Sabbath is a time to rest, a time to reflect, and a time to worship. Sundays are a time to worship God and be with people who genuinely care for you. It is simply a wonderful experience.

And let’s not forget Wednesday nights. In my childhood I heard someone say that Wednesdays were like a mid-week battery charge for the soul. I like the image. In the middle of a far too busy week, Wednesdays at church are a time to remember who God is and find some rest in Him.

“Back to Broadmoor” is a simple promotion of three things we deeply value at our church: worship, learning, and fellowship. We begin this Sunday with a catered breakfast starting at 8:45. Sunday School follows at 9:30 and worship at 10:30. Wednesday, August 13, will begin with a fine meal and end with something you simply won’t want to miss and will unfortunately probably never forget.

I’m looking forward to this Sunday. Welcome “Back to Broadmoor!”

Grace,
Terry Ellis
