“ Are You Insufficiently Christian”

“And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.” Colossians 3:17

“Whatever you do” and “everything” is a high calling. The mistake we typically make in the Christian life is to attempt to elevate “whatever” and “everything” to the realm of “highly Christian acts.” We want everything and whatever to be awesome and miraculous, and may even be guilty of trying to manufacture that. Thus, I want my sermon to be a tour de force, my column to be insightful and inspiring, my devotional to be so deep as to cause all heaven to pause in wonder. Why? Because “whatever” and “everything” is a call to supernatural excellence!

Try to live the Christian life that way and you are bound to feel defeated and frustrated. God did not make you to live every day on the Mount of Transfiguration. He made you to live in the afterglow of events like that. God has a habit of showing us great things, and then asking us to faithfully guard the memory of those events without expecting a daily duplication of the earth shattering miracle. Thus Israel remembered God’s deliverance from Egypt while they walked in the wilderness for forty years.

While weeding his garden one day, St. Francis was asked, “what would you do today if you knew the Lord was returning tomorrow?” Francis replied, “I would finish weeding my garden.”

That is the kind of day-to-day faith you need. You are not insufficiently Christian. You are perfectly loved by God who continues to transform you into the likeness of His Son. In this way, you will live the ordinary life extraordinarily well.

The truth is, that we Christians spend a great deal of our time living ordinary lives, but believing that as God powerfully demonstrated His faithfulness in the past, He will quietly demonstrate His faithfulness today, and tomorrow, and every day. So go to work. Take care of your family. Enjoy your recreation, your meals, your sleep. And give thanks to God in the ordinary “whatever” and “everything.”

Grace,
Terry Ellis

Deacon Ministries of Broadmoor Baptist

HOSPITAL VISITATION MINISTRY

This deacon led ministry is one of the most active of all the deacon ministries. Every day of the week, at least 2 deacons are reaching out to provide a caring presence along with love and support to church members and their family during a time of need. Of course, this ministry succeeds only when we know who’s in the hospital. Please call the church office at 927-5454 if you—or someone you know—could benefit from this ministry.
