...HEARS GOD'S WORD

Scripture Reading 2 Corinthians 8:7-15 Ken Coscino

Now as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you—so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking. I do not say this as a command, but I am, by mentioning the eagerness of others, testing the genuineness of your love. For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. And in this matter I am giving my opinion: it is beneficial for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something. Now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means. For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has, not according to what one does not have. For I do not mean that there should be relief for others and hardship for you, but it is a question of equality between your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may also supply your need, in order that there may be equality. As it is written, "The one who had much did not have too much, and the one who had little did not have too little."

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God.
People: Thanks be to God!

Choral Praise We are the Church of God David Angerman and Jon Paige

We are the church of God, a house of living stones, a monument of unity for God and God alone. Crowned with the cross of Christ, adorned with hope and grace, our windows stained with tears of joy, our altar made of praise. Christ is the sure foundation, the chief and cornerstone, and from before creation, He chose us as His own. The Church's one foundation is Jesus Christ Her Lord. She is His new creation by water and the Word. From heav'n He came and sought her to be His holy bride. With His own blood He bought her, and for her life He died. We are the church of God, a people set apart to be a holy priesthood, a kingdom of the heart. A nation called to praise, a trumpet in the night, an everlasting gloria, a testament of light. Elect from ev'ry nation are joined in His embrace. One mighty congregation, one voice of joyful praise! We are the church of God...Alleluia!
