Choral Praise Your Word, Oh Lord Donald McCullough

Your Word, oh Lord, is gentle dew to hearts in need of pardon; refreshing balm with life imbued, embracing morning gardens; so hearts, as flow'rs, in fertile ground may grow and flourish freely, bud forth and blossom daily. Your Word, Oh Lord, a wondrous star to eyes that would behold it; a guiding light in skies of night to sailors lost, confounded; so eyes, as travelers seeking refuge, find it brightly burning and fill their deepest yearning. Your Word, Oh Lord, a mighty rock to feet that lack commitment; a strong foundation built upon unchanging truths, transcendent; so feet, as firmly planted stones, may never move or alter, stand fast and never falter.

GATHER...TO HEAR THE GOOD NEWS

Scripture Luke 4:16-30 Janet Pace

When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the Sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set free those who are oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing." All spoke well of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They said, "Is this not Joseph's son?" He said to them, "Doubtless you will quote to me this proverb, 'Doctor, cure yourself!' And you will say, 'Do here also in your hometown the things that we have heard you did at Capernaum.'" And he said, "Truly I tell you, no prophet is accepted in his hometown. But the truth is, there were many widows in Israel in the time of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months and there was a severe famine over all the land, yet Elijah was sent to none of them except to a widow at Zarephath in Sidon. There were also many with a skin disease in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha, and none of them was cleansed except Naaman the Syrian." When they heard this, all in the synagogue were filled with rage. They got up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town was built, so that they might hurl him off the cliff. But he passed through the midst of them and went on his way.

Leader: The word of God for the people of God.

All: Thanks be to God!
